A pole vaulter is suspended in mid-air as he easily clears the bar during the Kawartha West championship held Thursday at HHSS. The local students once again retained the championship by scoring almost double the points of their nearest rival. The top finishers in this meet advance to the Kawartha A final this week in Peterborough. For results from the track meet, please turn to page 5.

Two new teaching posts added at High School

Two new teaching positions will be added to the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School beginning next September. The decision to add the two staff members was taken at the April meeting of the Haliburton County Board of Education. The increase had been recommended by HHSS principal Dale Robinson.

The two new teaching positions, which will bring the school's teaching staff up to 40.5, will be needed to meet the demands of the Ontario Schools, Intermediate and Senior policy announced last year by the Ministry of Education.

One of the new staff members will be teaching French, a subject which will become mandatory under the new program for some students. As well, the high school principal anticipates an increase in enrolment in September, accounting for the additional position.

The board also approved the hiring of three other teachers at the high school. These teachers will replace teachers who are retiring, leaving the school, or taking a leave of absence.

Courses dropped

A lack of interest has resulted in the elimination of 12 courses from the curriculum at Haliburton Highlands Secondary School. Members of the Haliburton County Board of Education approved the dropping of the courses at its April meeting.

Courses to be deleted at the high school include: third year drama; fourth year creative writing; a year one geography course; a three year geology course; second year drafting; second year electrical course; an electronics course; a business machines course; consumer studies; art; a special education program, Man in Society; and a machine shop course.

Board applies for special status

The Minister of Education Bette Stephenson, is being asked to consider Haliburton County for a proposed assistance program.

The decision to ask for the assistance was made by the Board of Education at a meeting on April 24. The proposed program is the result of a commission of inquiry regarding small secondary schools in northern

Red Cross holds last hospital board meeting

Hospital staff members and representatives of local Red Cross societies were in attendance April 27 when the Ontario Division of the Canadian Red Cross held its final hospital board meeting in Toronto. The meeting marked the end of Red Cross involvement in supplying hospital services in the province.

Attending from Minden were the president of the local society, Brian Adamson and Minden Red Cross Hospital Nurses Administrator, Jean Anderson. Mrs. Anderson was presented with a citation for her many years of service to the local facility.

President of the Haliburton Red Cross, Ken Morely and Nurse Administrator at the Haliburton facility, Marlene Bennett, was also in attendance. Mrs. Bennett also received a citation for her work at the Haliburton facility.

Also in attendance for the final meeting were representatives of staff, hospital boards and Red Cross societies in communities where the organization formerly managed hospitals. These communities included Bancroft, Lion's Head, St. Joseph's Island and Burk's Falls.

Red Cross set up its first Ontario hospital in Wilberforce in 1922 and has operated 38 hospitals in the province over the past 62 years. During that time, hospitals were opened and closed according to community needs. A study in 1978 examined the role of the last ten hospitals in the province and in subsequent years all have been turned back to the community to satisfy health needs as determined by Ontario Regional Health Councils.

Fred Rolfe, forestry technician with the Ministry of Natural Resources Minden office, examines red pine seedlings with members of the grade 3 class from Archie Stouffer Elementary School. The students, working in conjunction with senior classes, planted 1000 trees on property adjacent to the school. The project was undertaken to mark Heritage Week in the province. The planting effort completed a 5 year reforestation project.

Mother's Day

Haliburton Village was invaded by Lions Saturday as the service club held its annual district convention in that community. The highlight of the weekend was the hour and a half parade which threaded its way through the downtown core. Over one thousand Lions club members representing 57 clubs attended the convention.

Clarification

A report in the April 25 edition of The Times on a meeting of the Lutterworth Township council noted the installation of a self-serve propane outlet as John Francis Fuels, on Highway 35. According to the owner, the system will be operated by card, not a key as stated, and access will be available to anyone who applies for a card. The station will supply propane for automobiles, as well as portable cylinders.

Anniversaries come alive

For many individuals in the Minden area, the province's bicentennial celebration was an event which was happening elsewhere or not at all. There seemed to be little excitement and enthusiasm for the anniversary.

The lack of interest was abruptly turned around last week, however, as students at Archie Stouffer Elementary School held their annual open house marking Education Week.

The school had chosen the bicentennial as its theme. Each class researched a particular area of Ontario's heritage. The students were on hand in the classrooms to explain the exhibits on display. The presentations included such areas as fur trapping, pioneer crafts, toys, wool spinning, home remedies and home cooking, among others. The visitors had an opportunity to taste, home made bread with home made butter, savour sweet confections, see how pioneer youngsters amused themselves and examine tools used by the settlers.

On stage the grade six students presented an interesting and often amusing story of a couple who travelled from England to homestead in Haliburton County. The presentation was written by the students. It brought to life an interesting perspective on the early days of the area.

The students and teachers are to be congratulated for their outstanding effort.

All those who visited the school found the displays intriguing, educational and entertaining. For many, it also helped provide a perspective on the early days of Minden, Haliburton County and the province, adding substance to this year's anniversary celebrations.

Metric standards set

- by John Eakins, MPP -

So you thought metric was just a federal initiative? Not so, Ontario is the leader among the provinces.

MTC

New metric standards (drawing and specifications) aimed at providing uniform, streamlined construction practices in Ontario were made available for distribution in April, Chairman of the Joint Committee on Provincial Standards and Specifications for Roads and Municipal Services Peter Marko said.

The three-binder standards are the result of several years work by a joint committee consisting of representatives from the Municipal Engineers Association and the Ontario Ministries of the Environment and Transportation and Communications. While the standards were drafted, comments were solicited from the municipalities through a network of associate members - the Ontario Road Builders Association, Ontario Sewer and Watermain Contractors Association, Consulting Engineers of Ontario, Canadian Portland Cement Association and many others.

"Hopefully, with uniform standards in place, it will limit the unnecessary variety of products and components, thereby costs, without losing quality", said MTC Deputy Minister Harold Gilbert, a major force in the establishment of the Joint Committee. "Plus", he added, "these uniform standards will prove beneficial to all those who work in the field of highway, road, sewer and watermain construction."

Copies will be available from MTC's Highway Standards Section, 1201 Wilson Avenue, Downsview.

All-Farmer Board Will Hear Farm Tax Rebate Appeals

Editor:

I am writing in regard to a recent newspaper article concerning a municipal restriction of tree-cutting on private property.

I feel that if a property owner pays his taxes, he owns the property and the trees that are on it; and therefore should not be dictated to as to what trees he can cut. I am also of the opinion that the municipal government which should be acting for the residents it was elected to represent, would be making a greater contribution to the welfare of the area if it were to call the Ministry of Natural Resources to task for its girdling of healthy trees on Crown Land.

I believe the taxpayers should unite to oppose this invasion of citizen rights on private property.

Federation of Ontario Naturalists

In the past year, the Spanish River has gained notoriety across Ontario as the site of a nasty chemical spill by E.B. Eddy Forest Products at Espanola. But its long history as an important and scenic wilderness highway is not yet over. Far upstream from the spill zone, a 150 kilometre stretch of the river, between Biscotasi Lake and Duke Lake at the north, and Agnew Lake at the south, remains relatively unspoiled by the twentieth century. And if the Ontario government acts quickly and responsibly it should stay that way.

The status of this section of the river has long been a matter of controversy, largely because INCO Limited maintains options to dam it for hydro development to service its giant Sudbury smelter. That would spell disaster for trappers, tourist operators and mushrooming numbers of whitewater canoeists to whom the river is especially attractive. And to that the imminent prospects of its shores being bridged and logged by E.B. Eddy and the conflict becomes intense.

The Ministry of Natural Resources backed away from settling the issue in preparing its land use plan for the region, despite initially identifying the Spanish as a future waterway park. But the hundreds of individual letters and briefs urging protection have since prompted Alan Pope, the Minister, to ask the Provincial Parks Council to take a look at the situation.

The Council held public meetings in Sudbury and Toronto and submitted recommendations to the Minister at the end of March. What happens next is unclear. But what the Council heard is that all parties, except for the two industry giants, want the status quo to be maintained for the river corridor. It's just that opinion is divided on how best to do that.

Those who believe it is possible to protect the river by simply doing nothing, and who see parks as mere licences to expropriate, came to the Parks Council meetings to argue against designating the Spanish as a Waterway Park. But wishful thinking and good intentions alone do not provide a strong or long-term defense against roads, logging or dams backed up by legislation. That's why the Sudbury Naturalists along with many local sportsmen, canoeists and other users, opted for a park.

No matter how you slice it, a provincial park is the only option available today which provides for long-term nature protection on Ontario's Crown land, as well as an open, public process for managing natural features.

E.B.-Eddy tried to pose a third alternative, cleverly sensing the potential of appearing to offer a compromise between pro-and anti-park positions. It recommended the establishment of an informal committee, representing local user groups, to advise MNR on managing the river corridor. Not surprisingly, existing legal rights to log or dam would remain in force.

It remains to be seen if the Parks Council took the bait. Hopefully, after a decade in business, it is wise enough to know the status quo needs stronger protection than a committee - unless it's a committee to advise on how to manage the area as a Waterway Park.

the Farm Tax Reduction Program, which was improved late last year to rebate 60 per cent of a farmer's total farm property tax bill.

The Minister of Agriculture and Food named Lawrence Markusse of Wyoming, Ontario, as board chairman and Ian Balsillie of Picton as vice-chairman, both for two years. Ray Chowen of Thorndale and Walter Hamel of Elmwood were appointed as members for two years, while Wesley Down of Brighton, Charles Warner of Englehart and Murray Strachan of Brechin were made members for one-year terms. Members of the Farm Tax Rebate Appeal Board, being farmers themselves, will be in the best position to understand the problems of those who appeal. This is important because the board's decision will be final.

Application forms for the 1984 Farm Tax Reduction Program will be mailed to farmers this summer, together with an information pamphlet explaining how to appeal.

Walk will help third world

Many developing countries do not have adequate sources of clean, safe water. Even though some of their people may live near rivers, lake, or large open wells, still the water is often polluted and can make them very ill or kill them.

Others may find their only source of drinking water is several hours walk away - a gruelling trek on hot, dusty roads can still result in finding only contaminated water. Too frequently, also, the rains fail and droughts prevail.

The drilling of village wells can, however, provide clear, safe drinking water to numerous villagers in the desperately needy areas of our world.

On Saturday, June 2, Haliburton County's Help A Village Effort Committee (H.A.V.E.) will have a big Walk for Wells for the purpose of drilling wells in selected drought-plagued villages of India. Numerous families, friends, cottagers and visitors - both young and old - will be walking individually and in groups.

Already VIP's such as John Eakins, MPP and Bernie Nichols of the Los Angeles Kings Hockey Club, as well as the Bahai's of Scugog have stated their intention to walk! Our own Haliburton County Pipe Band will lead the Walk from Haliburton.

Sponsorship Walk forms are available at the Radio

Shack, Haliburton, Bowes and Cocks, Minden and elsewhere in the County. Why not pick up your form now and prepare yourself for your big county Walk? Your concern and efforts here will bring some relief to a great many there.

The annual open house at Archie Stouffer Elementary School featured a heritage theme this year. All grades in the school prepared demonstrations and exhibits depicting the early days in Ontario. Clockwise from the right: Megan Obee demonstrates weaving; Rebecca Wilson concentrates on rug hooking; The members of the grade six class depict the long journey from England to the Highlands; and Terry Prentice explains the birchbark canoe to an interested visitor.

Peterborough bull sale planned

- Ag report -

The Peterborough Bull Test Sale was recently announced for Saturday, May 12, at 1:00 p.m. The sale will be held at the Bull Test Station (2 miles east of Peterborough - 1 mile south of Highway 7 on the 10th line of Otonabee). The sale committee were pleased with the interest and results of last year's sale.

Twenty two of the top bulls will be sold. Ninety-three were weighed on test late last fall. Following an adjustment period, the bulls have been on full feed for the official 140 day test. They are weighed each month, to monitor their progress. At the conclusion of the official test period, bulls are indexed, based on their average daily gain, with adjustments made for breed.

All of the major breeds will be represented at the sale. There are no reserve bids. For further information and sale catalogues contact either the Peterborough or Lindsay Agricultural Offices.

Weeds along the roadside

What weeds are in the roadside along your property? Are these weeds on the noxious weed list? Is the municipality doing anything to control these weeds?

YBC news

by Lora Patton

This week as promised I have the results of the All Ontario Family Twosome. In the Tykes, Timmy and Jo-Anne Robinson will be going to Toronto as will John Patton and Gord Martin for the Bantams. Sheri and Ed Whiteway will be going as well for the Juniors.

And now ... for the trophy winners:

For the Bantams: John Patton, high average, 135; Danny Reid, high triple, 472; Shane Stickle, high single, 178; Teddie Pipe, runner up; Lora Patton, high average, 129; Cathy Lawr, high triple, 482; Angie Carpenter, high single, 211; Jenny Whiteway, runner up; Holly Archer, runner up.

For the Juniors: Darwin Bell, high average, 171; Tony Rutledge, high triple, 568; Sheri Whiteway, high average, 128.

For the Seniors: Corrine Handy, high average, 198; John Fountain, high triple; Darrel Bell, high average; and Tom, high single.

What is the condition on your side of the fence? What about a neighbour's place? Do you know the weed inspector?

There are many questions, but not everyone may know the answers. If you are not satisfied with the situation or results let your municipality know about your concerns. Find out who the weed inspector is and then contact that person, if you are concerned.

A meeting for people involved in controlling roadside weeds in Victoria County was held recently in Lindsay. At this meeting the people were informed about the weeds and their control.

Annual weeds, which come from seed each year, are best controlled by spraying before they flower.

Biennial weeds, which grow from seed one year and flower the next, are best sprayed in the fall or early spring while they are small.

Perennial weeds, which can grow from seed or old roots, are best controlled when sprayed at the late bud or early flower stage.

The bottom line is that one spray program may not control all these weeds.

Brush type weeds such as Buckthorn are best controlled by a basal bark spray, or be cut and the stumps removed. This treatment can be done anytime of the year that the control is not too hampered by too much snow. Use products with 2,4-D and dichloroprop mixed in fuel oil.

"2,4-D Susceptible Crop" signs are available from Maureen, County Weed Inspector, at 324-9411, or from the Lindsay Agricultural Office.

Soccer season opens Sunday

The Dixie Lee soccer team will open their second season in the Muskoka District Soccer Association with an away game against Gravenhurst on Sunday May 13.

The Haliburton squad met this team in their first game last year also and furthermore, in the last game which was a semi-final. They have become quite familiar with each other but unfortunately Haliburton were beaten rather handily in three encounters.

They were the league champions last year. They are expected to be strong again this year and this game so early in the season probably won't be a reliable indication of Haliburton's improved play, but possibly the stage will be set for an interesting rivalry.

Dixie Lee has had three practices to date and about eight new young players have turned out. Some of their best players from last year are just now returning from college so the prospects are promising for a good season.

The next practice will be in Minden at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday May 10 when the team for the Gravenhurst game will be selected. Anyone is welcome to practice with the team and there is still time for new players to register. You must be 16 years of age or over in this calendar year.

The complete league schedule has not been mailed out but on the Sunday following the Gravenhurst game, Dixie Lee will be at home to Muskoka Sun.

Clinic hit 4 times

For the fourth time since the beginning of April, the Good Medical Centre in Haliburton has been the target of thieves.

The latest break-in occurred during the night of May 1 - 2.

In all the incidents little was reported stolen. Police speculate that a small quantity of pills may have been removed from the premises in the latest break-in.

Access to the clinic was gained by breaking a basement window.

The investigation into the break-ins is continuing.
